1	Note 8/30/22 M22-421058 Entered by:CRAWFOS	Just saw that it did not break skin, I had gotten a call in the middle of answering her back, so I had sent it requesting pics. So will change to an aggressive not in progress since I spoke to her about it. She would like contact, as it is the 2nd time it has run at them. And the person let the leash go again. sac
2	Investigation Memo 8/30/22 M22-421093 Entered by:WILCOXA	08/30/22 12:52 AW55 I called the complainant, their voicemail said best contact was email. I got off the phone and then called the suspect, Molly, no one answered. I left a message asking for a return call. I then emailed the complainant. The complainant provided a photo of her right hip area, the dog bite did not break the skin.
3	Investigation Memo 8/30/22 M22-421141 Entered by:WILCOXA	AW55 08/30/22 15:42 The complainant was walking their dog on the public roadway when the suspect dog was spotted running loose. The suspect dog ran at the complainant, Kim, she quickly picked up her small dog. That is when the suspect dog bit Kim on the thigh buttock. The bite did not break the skin, Kim provided a photo of the location, there is a bruise. Kim yelled at the woman who was allegedly walking the dog to come get. The owner then came driving down the roadway, and Kim spoke with her letting her know the dog had bit her. The owner said they were sorry and both parties went their separate ways. I had spoken with the suspect dog owner, Molly, her legal name is Ying. She said the dog is a one year old Australian shepherd who was probably excited to see the other dog. She said the dog is not vicious, just get very excited. Molly said her mother who is in her 70's was walking the dog and pulled away from her. I suggested her mother not walk the dog and have a trainer work with it on pulling. Molly said the dog has taken classes for training. I asked her to go online and purchase a license for the dog as I didn't find one in our system. I informed her that she would receive an infraction for the dog not being under control.
4	Investigation Memo 8/31/22 M22-421176 Entered by:WILCOXA	AW55 I issued an infraction for unlawful conduct D, not under control.
