

Ed Weinstein

Principal / FAIA

Ed Weinstein is the founding principal and design lead of Weinstein A+U. Under his direction, the firm's portfolio has expanded to include a significant number of civic, community, mixed-use, and non-profit projects. Ed is recognized as one of the region's eminent designers and has led the firm to earn 90 Seattle Chapter, Northwest and Pacific Region, and National AIA design awards.

Known as a creative and astute problem solver, Ed's talent has been recognized regionally and nationally. In 1993, he was inducted into the American Institute of Architects (AIA) College of Fellows. In 2011, Ed received the AIA Seattle Medal of Honor, the region's highest recognition for lifetime achievement in architecture.

Education

Master of Architecture in Urban Design, Harvard University Graduate School of Design

Bachelor of Architecture, University of Washington

Professional Registrations

Registered Architect: WA, OR, HI

Boards, Commissions, and Organizations

American Institute of Architects, Local and National Chapters

Seattle Design Commission, Commissioner 1987 - 90; Chair 1990 - 92

National AIA Honor Award, Jury Member, 2000

Jury member for 25 national, regional, and chapter AIA Design Award juries, 1986-2016

Honors

AIA Seattle Medal of Honor, Recipient, 2011

American Institute of Architects, College of Fellows, 1993