a) Resume Experience: Officer Carlson has served as an Animal Control Officer with Regional Animal Services of King County since September 2021. Previously, he served as an Animal Control Officer with Denver Animal Protection from April 2019 through May 2020.

Officer Carlson completed the two week Animal Control Officer Academy with the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission (“WSCJTC”) in September of 2022. Office Carlson has also trained in bone identification. He has also completed a 40-hour course in Washington Crisis Intervention Training, also from WSCJTC. Finally, Officer Carlson completed a 40-hour course in Crime Scene Investigations in June of 2023.

As an Animal Control Officer, Officer Carlson has conducted and assisted in numerous animal cruelty and dog bite investigations. He has served and assisted with multiple search warrants and has compiled and forwarded numerous cases to the Prosecuting Attorney’s Office for review.

b) Subject of Testimony: Officer Carlson is expected to testify as to his investigation regarding the incident between the dog “Austin” Irvin/Quan and Dr. Kim Lampson (Reiff), as well as the results of that investigation. Officer Carlson may also testify as to his experience and training as an animal control officer, including the types of situations that can lead to provocation of an animal bite or attack.

c) Basis of Testimony: Officer Carlson will generally rely upon his educational credentials, his training and experience as an animal control officer, his review and investigation of the incident between Austin and Dr. Lampson (Reiff), and associated documents and materials relating to this case, and associated interviews.
