

From: David Magaram
To: Robin Proebsting
Subject: East Seattle School property
Date: Monday, June 24, 2019 8:06:00 AM

I have two major concerns about development at the site. First, the developer should be restricted to current height standards so as to not block other resident's view. When I built my current home very close to the site I was forced to adhere to these standards. Others should be held to the same. My second concern is that they observe standards on impervious surfaces to protect the lake and the environment.

Thank you,

David Magaram, M.D.